

Sir Charles Villiers Stanford was a cantankerous but inspired composer. To commemorate the centenary of his death (in 1924), his five glorious (but rarely heard) Organ Sonatas will be featured during the weekly recitals on Mondays at 1pm in ST MICHAEL'S CORNHILL in the City of London.

Norman Harper plays Sonata no 2: Monday 4 March

Jonathan Rennert plays Sonata no 1: Monday 11 March

Makoto James plays Sonata no 4: Monday 22 April

Richard Brasier plays Sonata no 3: Monday 20 May

Anthony Gritten plays Sonata no 5: Monday 1 July

Admission to these recitals is free.